

76 (VI). Third United Nations development decade

The Economic Commission for Western Asia,

Conscious of the supreme importance of the diligent preparation of the development strategy for the third United Nations development decade,

Realizing the significance of the contribution of ECWA member States in expressing the terms and trends of development during the 1980s,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 33/193,

1. Decides to set up an intergovernmental committee of development experts from the member States of ECWA for the purpose of preparing, in collaboration with the secretariat of the Commission, a report on the views of the ECWA region on the international development strategy for the third development decade;

2. Calls upon the Executive Secretary of the Commission to make the necessary arrangements for convening the meetings of this committee, so that it may conclude its work at a suitable date not later than the end of August 1979 and thereby enable the Executive Secretary to make available the contribution of the Commission.
