The United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (ESCWA) is organizing a regional workshop on “Policy Toolkit as Guidelines for Policymakers to Integrate Small-Scale Renewable Energy in Rural Development”

The main objectives are:

- Discuss policy options for facilitating the dissemination and use of small-scale RE technologies for rural development within an integrated approach.
- Explore the policies that could allow rural women to benefit from the introduction of small-scale renewable energy technologies.
- Formulation of recommendations for policymakers aiming to increase the use of small-scale renewable energy technologies for rural development and women empowerment.
