

Middle East and North Africa

Shared Prosperity Dignified Life

Middle East and North Africa Climate Week

28-31 March 2022

Climate mainstreaming for a green economic recovery in the Arab Region Affiliated Event

Wednesday 30 March 2022, 10:30 – 12:00 (Dubai, GMT+4)

Opening

10:30-10:35

Moderator: Mr. Bradley Todd Hiller, Lead Climate Change Specialist (Mitigation), Resilience & Social Development Department, Global Practice & Partnerships Directorate, IsDB

Setting the Stage and introduction of concept

10:35-10:55

- Mr. Amer Bukvic, Director General, Global Practice and Partnership, IsDB
- Ms. Carol Chouchani Cherfane, Director, Arab Centre for Climate Change Policies and Cluster Leader, Climate Change and Natural Resource Sustainability Cluster, UN-ESCWA

Panel discussion

10:55-11:20

Mr. Walid Hakiki, Head of Central Department for Kitchener Drain Rehabilitation Project, Ministry of Water Resources and Irrigation, Egypt

Incorporation of climate considerations into water sector strategies and development plans by the Planning Department and the MWRI

Ms. Noura K. Al Issa, Senior Policy Analyst, Sustainability and Climate Change, Ministry of Energy, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

Climate mainstreaming in the energy sector in KSA

Ms. Dalal Elhadj Ebrahim Mohammed, Researcher, Climate Change Department, Higher Council for Environment & Natural Resources (HCENR), Sudan

Integrated planning and cross-sector coordination for climate mainstreaming

- Mr. Christopher Dekki, Director, Global Advocacy and Engagement, SLOCAT Partnership on Sustainable, Low-Carbon Transport
- Monitoring and Evaluation for climate mainstreaming, showcasing the example of KPIs for the transport sector*

Q&A

11:20-11:40

Open discussion from the floor

Closing

11:40-11:45

Wrap up and closing remarks

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION SCAN
THE ABOVE CODE