ASYCUDA 40 YEARS
Automated System for Customs Data

Erik WILLEMS / May 2022

PRESENTATION
Trade facilitation features in ASYCUDA

ASYCUDA
Division on Technology and Logistics (DTL)

UNITED NATIONS
UNCTAD

Trade facilitation /ASYCUDA

The Bridgetown Covenant

(c) Continue to provide assistance..... aimed at improving the efficiency of trade transactions ......in implementing, the Automated System for Customs Data

Full electronic electronic processing/direct trader input

ASYCUDAWorld webbased

▶ All data/documents can be introduced via internet

　　　　- scans
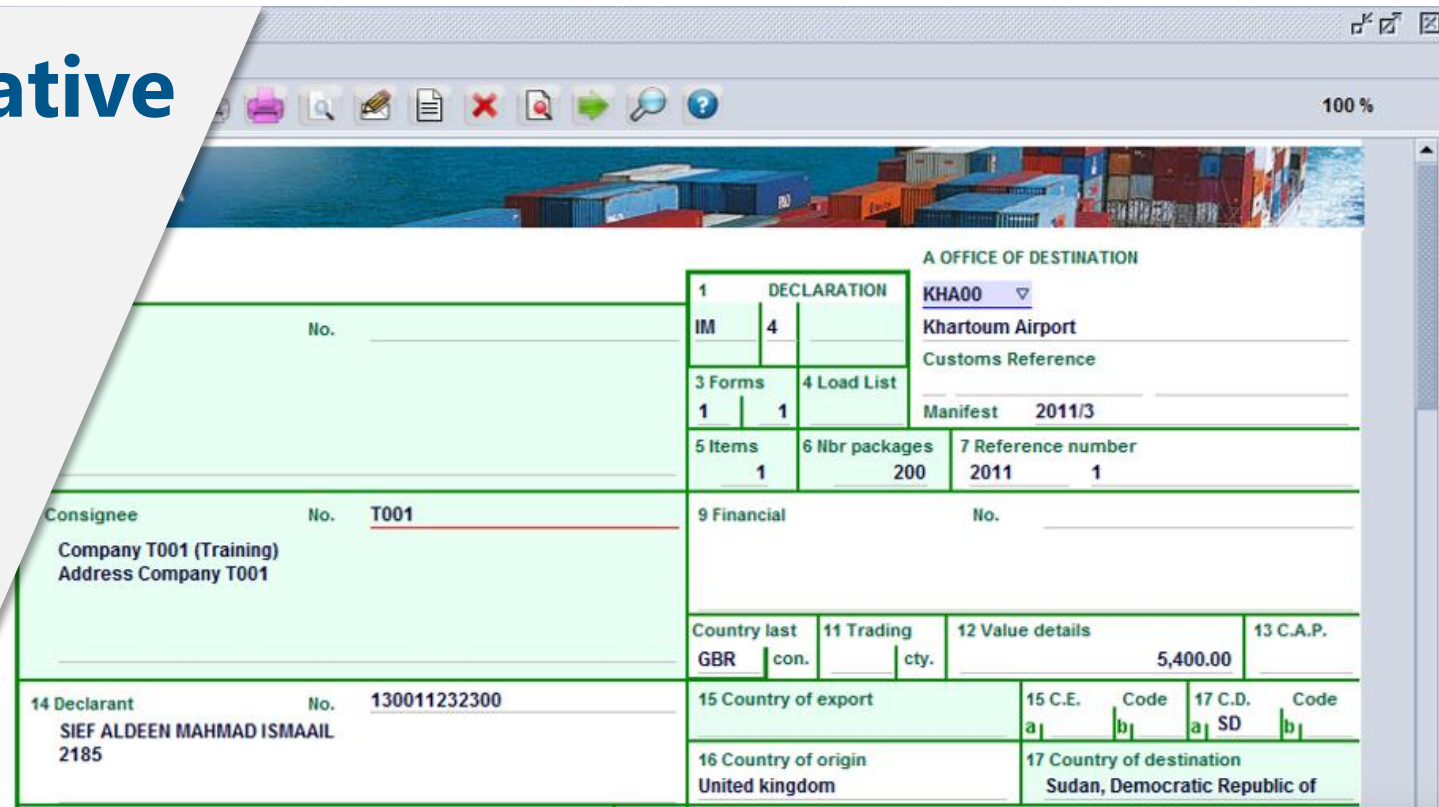

　　　　- webservices

➔ Eliminate human contact .

- quicker

- cheaper
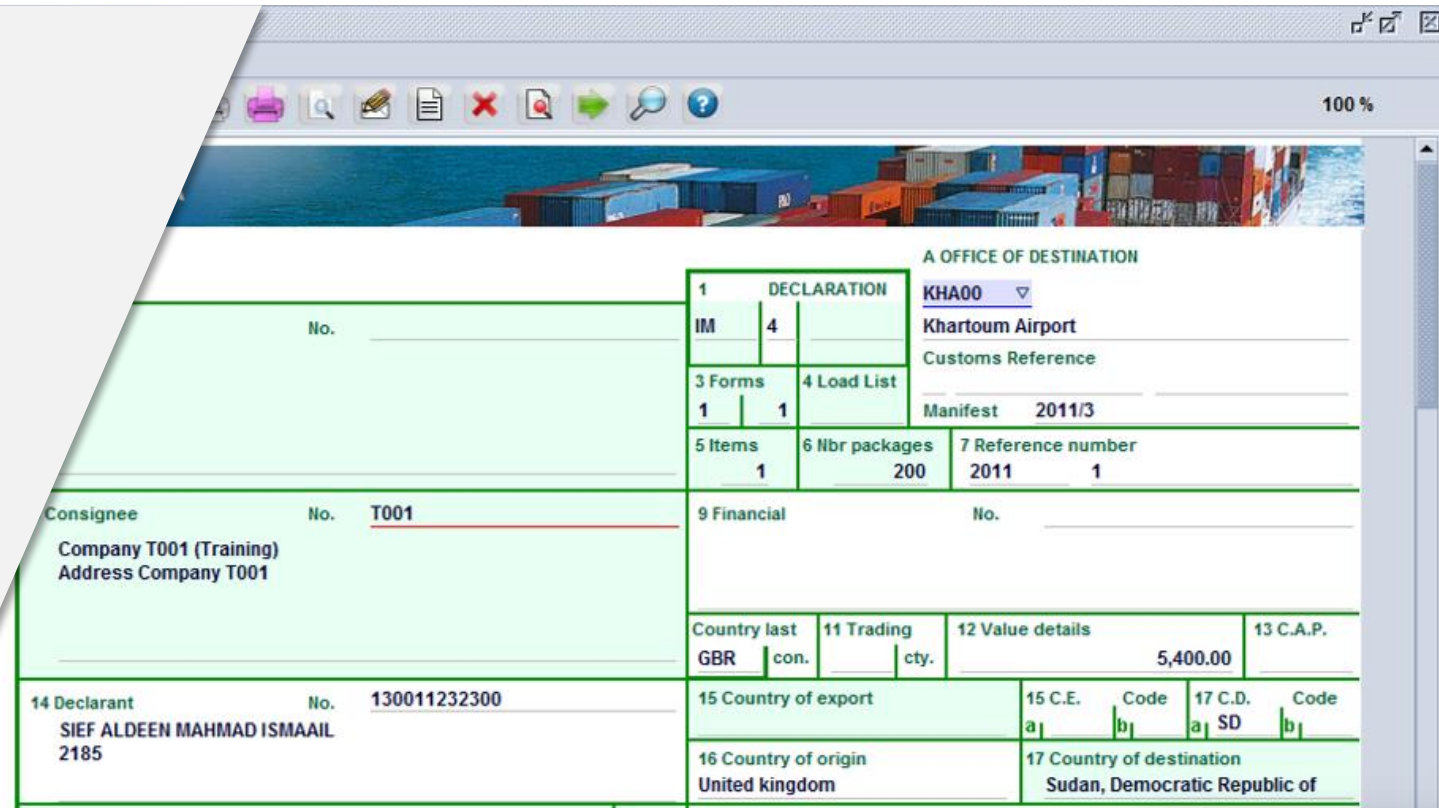

- less corruption

- ecological

Harmonization in ASYCUDA

- Using Single Administrative Document

- HS CODE

- WCO Data model

- Same taxes in the whole country

Simplification
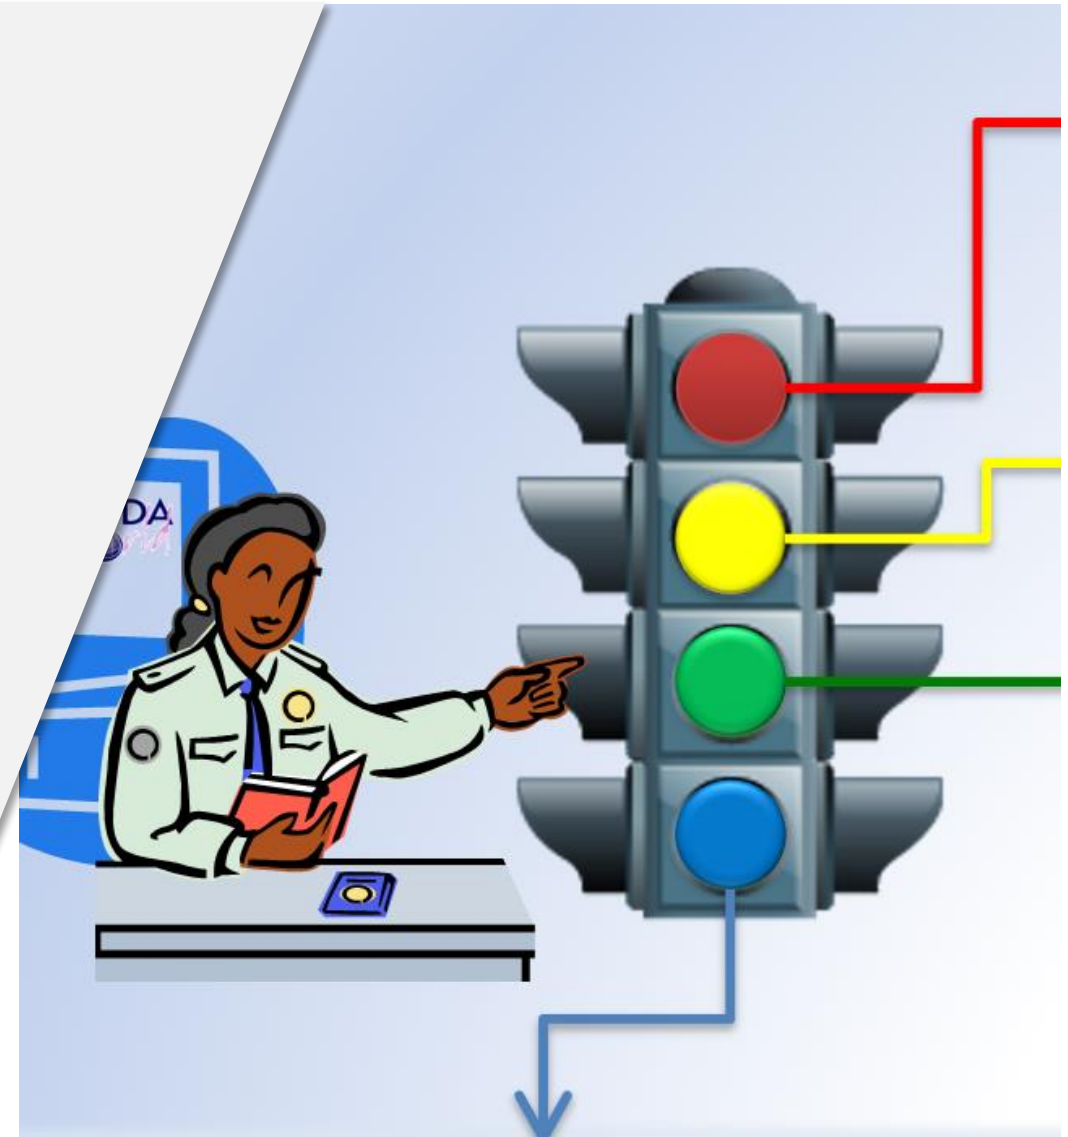

1. Re use of data
2. Automatic clearance of previous document
3. Automatic calculation of taxes
4. Automatic informing interveners

- Fully automatic procedure when green
- Risk analyze.
- Adapting the accepted risk level at the available resource
- Authorized economic operator
- electronic payment
- prepayment/credit accounts

PREDICTABILTY in ASYCUDA

- Portal with trade info
- Splitting selection and verification
- Rulings
- Monitoring ASYPM

THANK YOU!

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Erik WILLEMS
Project Manager (coordination desk officer)
ASYCUDA Programme, Division on Technology and Logistics erik.willems@unctad.org
Tel : +41 22 917 17 20

Palais des Nations, CH-1211 Geneva 10, Switzerland @asycudaprogram
asycuda.org
unctad.org