

Expert Workshop on Developing the Capacities of the Health Sector for Climate Change Adaptation to Protect Health from the Climate Change Effects on Freshwater Resources

Amman, 19-21 April 2016

Objectives

Main Goal

Develop the capacities of the Arab countries in the area of climate change adaptation with a specific focus on the water sector to protect Human health for professionals working in this field

Framing
the linkages
between climate change, Water sector, and Health

Explore and identify the impacts of climate change on the Water sector and Health

Present
the tools for adaptation in the water sector in order to protect human health

Specific Objectives

Review the governance framework towards identifying the needed adaptation interventions for the sector.

Audience of the Training module

Decision makers and technical staff in the governmental and operational water and health sectors who are concerned with the health dimensions of climate change and with developing and implementing policies, programmes or projects;

Stakeholders involved in the development and implementation of National Adaptation Plans (NAPs) and National Adaptation Programmes of Action (NAPAs), Nationally Appropriate Mitigation Actions (NAMAs) and National Communications;

Non-governmental organizations (NGOs) experts active in the area of climate change and/or water and health;

Researchers working on climate change adaptation in the water and health issues.